

Complaints Management

There is a formal process available to students who may have a complaint about an aspect of their schooling.

The Student Grievance Procedure covers decisions about curriculum issues, assessment, discrimination, school policies and daily routines and practices in and out of the classroom.

An information leaflet is available from the information stand near the General Office.